

Bryce, Arizona Post Office

In 2022 we discovered the Postal History Foundation located in Tucson. The librarian there was very helpful in researching information about the Bryce, Arizona post office. Yes, there used to be a post office in Bryce! It opened on 5 August 1891 and was discontinued 28 February 1922.

Attached is a photograph of Annie Elnora Bryce standing in front of the Bryce Post Office (1912). When her father, Heber Brooks Bryce was the postmaster from April 1915 to April 1918, she served as assistant postmaster. Later, she took the Civil Service Examination for postal clerks and was appointed to work in the Safford post office.

On a side note, Annie was a member of the Mt. Graham stake Genealogical Committee. There is no way to know how many hundreds of hours nor how much of her personal money she spent in doing genealogical research. She had researched the Bryce and Park lines back to the thirteenth century. Elnora and her Aunt Jane Mattice were instrumental in starting the Bryce Family Organization and she was the family genealogist until her death.

Years ago, Ben Bryce saw a postmarked postcard on eBay from Bryce, Arizona. Ben purchased it. In January of 2023, he offered the postcard to the Ebenezer Bryce Foundation.

The post office stamp reads: Bryce, Ariz., September 24, 1909 A.M.

It is addressed to Flossie Whipple, Clifton, Arizona on 23 September 1909.

"Hello Flossie, I received your card day before yesterday. Tell Lealand hello for me. I would like to see you all. How is Clifton? I expect fine. How does Lealand feel? Alice is all worked up. How is your mamma? I am going to school. Bryce is as dull as ever. You must come back and see us all."
Carlotta Box 332

We have laughed about Bryce being "as dull as ever." Nowadays, that's exactly what we like about Bryce. Calm and quiet!

Another search on eBay revealed a U.S. stamp printed in 2006 of Bryce Canyon National Park.

CAIRO-BAGDAD AIR MAIL SERVICE.

SECOND ASST. POSTMASTER GENERAL,
Washington, February 13, 1922.

This department has accepted the offer of the London office to accept ordinary and registered letters, postal cards, printed matter, samples of merchandise and commercial papers, except parcel-post packages, for transmission to Bagdad and northern Persia (Isphahan, Teheran, etc.), and to places as far south as Bushire, at the rate of 15 cents an ounce or fraction thereof, in addition to the international rate of postage required, the air mail fee and the postage to be paid by postage stamps affixed to each piece. Mail matter intended for dispatch by the Cairo-Bagdad Air Mail Service should bear in the upper left-hand corner of the envelope or cover, a blue label with the words "By Air-Cairo-Bagdad," or in lieu of the label be prominently marked as indicated so that the articles in assorting may not be overlooked.

All mail articles for this service will be dispatched to New York for onward transmission from that exchange post office. The London office has furnished a table regarding the details of the service reading as follows:

Service.	Mail closes in London.	Destination.	Delivery or connection to be secured by use of a given dispatch from London.	Normal gain by use of air mail instead of ordinary route for distant places.
Cairo-Bagdad.	6 p. m. on alternate Thursdays. Feb. 23; Mar. 9, 23, etc.	Iraq-Mesopotamia. Northern and Western Persia as far as Bushire.	Delivery in Bagdad in about 10 days.	14 or more days. From 3 days (Bushire) up to 15 or more days.

The London office gives notice that it should be clearly understood that the air service is an experimental one and is liable to modification or suspension at any time in accordance with military requirements.

E. R. WHITE,
Acting Second Assistant Postmaster General.

I was born in Bryce, Graham Co. Arizona July 6, 1898 where I lived until 1922. I attended and graduated from District School there. I attended the Safford High School at Safford, Arizona a short time. The rest of my education was acquired through study at home and practical experience.

I clerked in a store owned by my father, from October, 1913 to June 1917, when he sold it; and also kept books for him.

My Father was Postmaster at Bryce Arizona from April 1915 to April 1918 and I was assistant Postmaster.

I taught school two years and then took the Civil Service Examination for Postal Clerk and was appointed to work in the Post Office at Safford Arizona. I started work April 17, 1922 and am still employed here.

While I was a member of the Bryce Ward I held offices in practically every organization in the Church; being First Counselor of the Y. L. M. C. A., of which I was President two years, teacher and organist in Sunday School, and Ward Organist when I moved to Safford to make my home.

I am now a member of the Lytton Ward and Secretary of the Genealogical Society here.

A LITTLE MIXED UP

Just a line to say I'm living,
That I'm NOT among the dead;
Though I'm getting more forgetful,
And more mixed up in the head.
For, sometimes, I can't remember,
When I stand at foot of stair,
If I must go up for something,
Or I've just come down from there.

And before the 'fridge' so often,
My poor mind is filled with doubt,
Have I just put food away, or
Have I come to take some out.
And there's times when it is dark out,
With my night cap on my head,
I don't know if I'm retiring,
Or just getting out of bed.

So, if its my turn to write you,
There's no need in getting sore,
I may think that I have written,
And don't want to be a bore.
So, remember--I do love you,
And I wish that you were here;
But now, it's nearly mail time,
So I must say, Good-bye, dear,"

There I stood beside the mailbox,
With a face very red,
Instead of mailing you my letter,
I had opened it instead.. . . .
